The names of W. M. Bagby, C. M. Gentry, J. P. Rodgers and James Willson who have died this year, were referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Burrell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Monroe was introduced.

On motion of E. K. McLarty the Secretary was instructed to send a fraternal message to Dr. D. Atkins who is sick at his home in Asheville.

George F. Wright was, on motion of R. S. Howie granted a location at his own request.

The following, presented by W. R. Ware, was adopted:

The graves of Methodist ministers and their faithful wives are too much neglected in this day of rush and increasing worldly cares. Some of these heroes and heroines sleep in village and country graveyards, some in city cemeteries. One hundred and thirteen of our own preachers have gone from us. The busy crowd rushes thoughtlessly by and knows not where these men of God lie. Some Conferences have adopted a plan of doing them honor by placing a simple marker on their graves, and decorating them with flowers on every Memorial Day. Is not this a beautiful and timely thing to do? Would not the Epworth Leaguers, the Sunday School, or some class in Sunday School be delighted to do this respectful deed in every community where one or more graves of our fallen brethren are located?

It is suggested that an iron cross with a bust of John Wesley or Asbury, or some other design suitable for a Methodist Minister's grave, might be used.

We would therefore respectfully request, that this Conference adopt some plan and set apart some day when these graves shall be suitably marked, and that flowers be placed on them the day so set apart every year; and that a committee of eleven be appointed, one from each Presiding Elder's District, to formulate a plan and bring it to the attention of our people in such a way as to have this beautiful service performed next spring and each succeeding spring thereafter.

J. B. Craven for the Presiding Elders nominated the following to serve on the Hospital Board for the present quadrennium: (See Conference Organization)

The Bishop called A. W. Plyler to preside.

The following was adopted:

Since the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church have a common historic origin and are one in doctrine and life, and inasmuch as the two churches work side by side in many places in North Carolina where the Methodist constituency is hardly sufficient for one church, resulting in weakness for both, and hurt to the larger work of the Kingdom:

Therefore, we would move for some correlation, or federation of effort, and strive for a better natural understanding between the members of these two bodies of our common world-wide Methodism.

There can be but little justification for the loss that comes to the two churches in North Carolina by the lack of mutual co-operation, therefore,

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference appoint a commission of three, to act with a commission of three to be named by the North Carolina Conference, this joint Commission to represent the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in North Carolina, provided the Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, soon to meet, appoint a Commission to meet with this Commission from the two Conferences of our Church in this State, to consider together the relationship of the two churches.

Should this result in better mutual understanding, and in finer co-operation of effort on the part of the people composing the two Commissions this effort will not be in vain.

G. T. ROWE,
J. H. BARNHARDT.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 1

The Board has read with great satisfaction a communication from the secretaries of the General Board of Education setting forth the results of the Christian Education Movement. While these results did not reach the financial goal set by the Annual Conferences in increasing the amount recommended by the General Conference, they did reach and pass a little beyond the amount proposed by the General Conference, without the amounts for local needs voluntarily added by the Annual Conferences. In addition to the money pledged and raised the movement has awakened the church to the vital importance of Christian Education and led many young men and women to pledge themselves for life service. Numbers of these young workers have already been accepted for service and are now happily useful in their chosen fields, but many more have yet to complete their education before they will be ready. For the sake of these workers as well as for the sake of the whole church it is necessary that the plans of the Christian Education Movement be carried out. We therefore pledge ourselves as a Conference to the hearty and earnest support of the plans of the General Conference and the General Conference Board of Education in carrying on the Christian Education Movement.

The Board notes with appreciation the disposition of the General Conference Board of Education to give careful attention to the educational interests of our Conference. We are reminded that the General Conference Board of Education is instructed by the Discipline to seek in closest possible co-operation with the Annual Conference Boards of Education to promote Religious Education in the homes of the people, in the institutions of the church and in tax-supported and independent institutions, including public schools. We therefore, recommend that the President and Secretary of the new Board of Education be appointed as a committee to co-operate with other churches and organizations in developing a complete program of Moral and Religious training in the Primary, Grammar and High School grades of the Public Schools.

We also recommend that J. F. Kirk, E. W. Fox, and W. R. Odell be appointed as a Commission to work with the proper authorities in providing for optional courses in Religious and Moral Subjects to be offered in the colleges and universities of the State.

We recommend that W. O. Goode be appointed as a representative of the Board of Education of this Conference in the Methodist Educational Association.

We recommend that W. O. Goode be appointed Secretary-Treasurer of Education for the Conference. In making this recommendation we have in mind the splendid work of the past year. This work includes the collection of $80,600 from pledges and the addition of $89,115.60 in new subscriptions. Since the date of November 5-12 has been set for paying up week throughout the whole Conference for 1922 pledges, we earnestly urge all pastors, collectors, and all other persons concerned to do their utmost that week to bring the payment of all subscriptions up to date.

G. T. ROWE, President,

C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 2

The Board has given careful consideration to the condition, needs and prospects of all our schools. It has before it written reports from Trinity, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver and Rutheerford Colleges, and Jefferson School, Weddington Industrial Institute and Brevard Institute. These reports were supplemented by verbal statements of representatives of the schools. While there are some difficult problems to be faced in our educational work, most of our schools are unquestionably filling necessary places in the field of education and rendering indispensable service to the church.

We have learned with great satisfaction that Trinity College continues to expand its field of service and have given earnest consideration to the part that our Conference should have in that expansion. In view of the generous gift of Mr. J. B. Duke of $50,000.00 toward a building to house the School of Religious Training, we recommend that the Conference cheerfully undertake its part and that Z. E. Barnhardt and W. R. Odell be appointed as a committee to co-operate with a like committee from the North Carolina Conference and with the Trustees of the college in raising the additional $50,000.00 necessary for the erection of this building, which will bear the name of Bishop John C. Kilgo.

We further recommend that the Western North Carolina Conference establish one of the new chairs required by the School of Religious Training at Trinity and that $3000.00 be contributed annually to the support of this new chair. The Board learns with pleasure that all money paid to the college through the Christian Education Movement not otherwise directed will go toward strengthening the School of Religious Training.

Since Greensboro College is the only "A" Grade College (devoted exclusively to the education of women,) belonging to the Methodism of the State, we realize that its endowment and equipment must be continually increased, and we rejoice in the assured position that it occupies and in the steady growth that it is enjoying.

We recommend that the Trustees of Greensboro College be empowered to place a mortgage of $50,000.00 upon the property of the College to fund the debt incurred in the creation of the new music building, which was made possible through the generosity of Mr. J. A. Odell, if the Trustees find such a course advisable.

Davenport College is meeting a great need in the educational system of our church. Under wise and careful management this school is growing as rapidly as its funds will allow.

Weaver College has found it advisable to discontinue the lower grades and to confine its work to a course of four years; two of which are given to college work and two to preparation for that work. The work at this school is satisfactory and thorough, though there is great need for larger income.

Rutherford College is giving eighty-one students their courses without tuition. This fact, as well as the splendid work done, commends this institution to the benevolence of all who desire to contribute to the support of the growth of the Kingdom of God.

Jefferson School is enabling our church to lay hold upon some of the most promising young men and women in one of the best sections of the State. This school is undoubtedly giving the church large returns for the small amount of money contributed to its support.

The industrial feature of Weddington Industrial Institute has been discontinued for the present and the Trustees are in doubt as to the course that should be pursued in caring for, and using, this school. Changing conditions have made it uncertain as to whether the plan for making it an industrial school be carried out. The Board of Trustees is giving careful consideration to the difficult problems connected with Weddington.

While Brevard Institute does not belong to the Conference, we rejoice in the great work it is doing and express our appreciation of the generous support that is being given through the Centenary and Mission Board to this institution within our bounds.

Trinity Park School, having met the needs for which it was established, has been discontinued, and the buildings formerly used by it are now occupied by students of the College.

We recommend the election or confirmation of the following trustees: For Greensboro College, Dred Peacock; For Rutherford College, T. V. Goode, D. F. Carver, T. F. Marr, Augustus Setzer, J. H. Giles, J. D. Pitts, B. Wilson, J. T. Mangum, and R. G. Rankin; for Jefferson School, H. K. Boyer, W. E. Johnson, A. T. Allen, and J. B. Craven; as Managers for the Trinity Summer School for preachers, C. M. Pickens, H. H. Jordan and Z. E. Barnhardt.

We recommend the following appointments: S. B. Turrentine, as President of Greensboro College; W. M. Curtis as Secretary-Treasurer of Greensboro College; P. T. Durham, as Professor in Candler School of Theology; O. L. Simpson, as student in Harvard University; H. M. Wellman, G. C. Ervin, W. E. Hauss and A. C. Tippet, as students in Trinity College; A. P. Brantly, as student in Boston University; J. A. Baldwin, as president of Southern Industrial Institute; J. W. Bennett and R. M. Hauss, as teachers in Rutherford College; and J. M. Downum, as teacher in Appalachian Training School.

We recommend an assessment of $30,000, of this amount $550 shall go to Incidental expenses and the Summer School for preachers; $3000.00 to the new chair in the School of Religious Training at Trinity College; and $5000.00 to Greensboro College. Of the sum remaining there shall be paid on a pro rata basis $4,150 to Davenport College, $4,150.00 to Weaver College, $4,150 to Rutherford College, $3000.00 to Jefferson School, and $3000.00 to the Ministerial Students' Sustentation Fund.

We request the General Board to appropriate the sum of $9000.00 to the schools within our Conference, to be divided as follows: Rutherford College, $3000.00; Weaver College, $3000.00; Jefferson School, $3000.00.

The educational statistics for the Conference which follow give the total valuation and endowment for all the schools, including Trinity College and Greensboro College. Since these two schools belong to both Conferences that part of Trinity and Greensboro belonging to the Western North Carolina Conference is one-half the total. The statistics for Trinity are as of May 31, 1922:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Your Board of Missions notes with pleasure the gratifying advancement in Missionary activity during the past quadrennium. We have been brought to realize more fully than ever before the needs of the field and our opportunity to spread the Gospel. We have felt the thrill of the consecration of life to the service of God and the church, for thousands of our finest young men and women have placed themselves upon the altar of the church for life-service. And along with the larger opportunity to spread the Gospel and the consecration of life has come a consecration of means to support the work. When we compare what we are now doing with what we have been doing we are almost tempted to boast of our achievements; but when we think of the needs for larger activity we think of our achievements as but the beginning.

COLLECTION OF PLEDGES

Our success in opening up work in Poland, Belgium, Checo-Slovakia and Manchuria-Siberia, and the enlargement of our work in China, Japan, Korea, Africa, Brazil, Mexico, Cuba, and in the homeland has made the collection of the Centenary pledges imperative. We will not undertake to assess the disastrous effect upon the church that would result from a failure to meet these pledges. We cannot too earnestly urge upon the leaders in all our local congregations the necessity of calling out the reserve forces in every church that can in any way help to collect those pledges. There are about one million dollars for our Conference which will fall due by December 31, 1923. It is needless to say that only the local churches where the pledges were made can effectively collect their payments. A very positive determination on the part of the pastors along with the local church Centenary Treasurers is essential to success at this point.

SPECIALS

We desire to call attention again to specials that may be supported by churches, Sunday-schools, or individuals. These specials prove a blessing to those who support them.

TRINITY SUMMER SCHOOL

We commend to all our preachers the Trinity Summer School and urge all the undergraduates of the Conference to attend. We nominate Chas. H. Ireland for a term of three years for the Board of Managers, to succeed himself. We nominate L. D. Thompson for a term of two years to succeed J. W. Moore, whose term of office expired in 1921.

EVANGELISM

The last General Conference set as a goal for the next quadrennium a million new members on profession of faith. This is estimated to be about ten per cent. increase in membership per year, which is certainly not too large a dividend for the Kingdom of God. We cannot put in words the emphasis we feel should be given to evangelism. Every Methodist preacher is per se an evangelist. It is very gratifying that a large number of our pastors have held their own revivals with the best of results. Remember that only those who join by profession of faith bring increase to the Kingdom.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Jas. H. Green, Rev. R. A. Taylor and Rev. S. T. Barber as Conference Evangelists, and Rev. T. A. Groce as District Evangelist for the Waynesville District, and Rev. P. E. Parker, Conference Missionary Evangelist. We must use these good men in this special field to the limit of their strength.

Your Board has attempted to aid and carry out the great building activity of our Conference, and every application coming before us has had our fair and earnest attention. As is usually the case, we find ourselves embarrassed by our inability to grant the amount asked for in every application. However, by careful appraisal, we have been able to make the following donations and loans to our churches and parsonages:

LOAN

Lowell$1,000.00

Rev. A. W. Plyler was elected to succeed himself on the Duke Commission.

Our Board has decided by unanimous vote that it would avail itself of the opportunity provided by the last General Conference of assessing and disbursing our own conference funds. This is done with the hope that the conference will concur in our action.

It is the earnest wish of this Board to secure greater resources with which to more adequately carry on its important work of aiding needy churches. It was decided that in order to increase our loan fund, that any surplus that we might have, outside of the emergency fund, would go to this purpose.

All the applications that could be referred to the Duke commission, have been placed with this commission for action as soon as the commission meets. (These recommendations were read to the Conference).

The applications to the General Board will be considered at an early meeting of the Executive Committee, and we further state with regret that some very meritorious cases had to be deferred for consideration at our next conference session.

J. H. BARNHARDT, President,
L. B. HAYES, Secretary.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

During the last twenty years a change in the social order has been taking place in North Carolina. It has gone on most swiftly within the bounds of our Conference and is bringing social conditions that demand prayerful consideration.

In the change from a predominantly agricultural people to a predominantly manufacturing people there is a tendency to separation into classes with a consequent lack of understanding sympathy.

Neighboring and fellowship marked the democratic simplicity of farm life. People were held in sympathy by common work, common interests and common mode of living. Today social groups are separated by lines of changes caused by diversity of occupation, mode of life and conflicting interest.

The employees in a large industry cannot know the stress and strain, the anxieties felt and the courage demanded of those who bear the responsibilities of financing and managing large combinations of capital; nor can the employer fully appreciate the monotony of toil, the meagerness of life, the narrow margins of self-directed leisure that are the lot of the average factory worker".

These classes are just beginning to develop class consciousness among us. Now is the time, before it has crystallized into fixed indifference or developed active animosities, hatreds and strife, to permeate every group with the spirit of Christ which is the only force that will amalgamate. The wounded hand of the Carpenter is the only hand that can close the breach.

We must devise means of helping every toiler to see the significance of his particular part in the long processes by which the world is fed and clothed and housed and carried to and fro; to see the meaning of the work of others, the wonder of our interlocking life and the beauty of adjustment.

The countryside is being drained of its youth. Do townspeople appreciate the farmer whose toil feeds them and whose children are reinforcing their industrial groups? Does the city church acknowledge its debt to the struggling mother churches of the country? Are city people glad to help make better country schools out of which come future city workers? What are we doing to solve the problems of tenancy in rural districts?

The church is the only organization in which all classes meet in common purpose, the only organization fitted to interpret truth to all and to interpret men and women to each other. Out of the church must come social leadership. For this reason we are glad to see our church schools offering courses in economics, social science and rural social economics. We rejoice that our Trinity College is drawing pastors into summer courses, and hope that an increasing number will avail themselves of short courses and correspondence courses in these subjects. For clear and plain as Gospel truth is to light the way, the perplexities and complexities of modern production, distribution and finance demand the best that science can bring to straighten out the tangles, and promote constructive policies that will elevate all classes.

We need greater knowledge of these matters in the churches. We believe that the pastors and lay leaders should organize the Social Service Committees called for by the Discipline, and stimulate through these committees the study of social questions, social reforms and local community needs, that they may both work as individuals and as co-operators with civic agencies for order and welfare in a new social evangelism.

We have a social creed in the Discipline worth study. Too few know it. We again recommend that it be printed at least once during the Conference Year in the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Since the Federal provisions regulating child labor have been declared unconstitutional we recommend support of a Federal Amendment to safeguard children from the toil that will retard the coming generation; and since it is agreed that widowed mothers suffer greater hardship without their children's earnings, we advocate a State bill for some form of Mother's Assistance Act, such as has been found good in other states. We believe that worthy mothers should by such a provision be enabled to keep their young children with them, rather than to have them scattered in institutions.

We are glad to recognize the number of Woman's Missionary societies that are co-operating with negro church women in organization of colored women's societies, community clubs and Sunday School teacher training classes. We hope this will become a general policy and that pastors may render like services among colored pastors.

North Carolina and Virginia have borne a reputation for fairness to the negro. That the negro home may be kept safe from invasion, and that race conflicts may be avoided we hope that the local committees on Race Relationships recommended by this Conference last year, may be organized in increasing numbers and that Methodist pastors and laymen will be active participants. Already acts of mob violence have been averted and the law upheld through the prompt action of these committees in cases of suspected criminals in our state.

In these and all questions of human relationship we pray that we may one and all be able to meet the requirements of our Lord, "to deal justly, love mercy, and walk humbly before our God."

LAW ENFORCEMENT

By adoption of the Volstead Act, prohibition has been made the law of the land. When this was done many of us felt that the age long battle against the whiskey traffic had come to an end. But subsequent developments have taught us that the victory is not yet complete. The liquor traffic is neither dead nor sleeping. It is more awake, more active, more aggressive because better organized than at any time in its history. The advocates of the liquor traffic have found out that an unlawful traffic discredits prohibition. More than twenty-five new liquor organizations have already been launched and many wet newspapers are proclaiming to the people that prohibition is a failure. Fourteen thousand illicit distilleries were destroyed last year by the Federal Enforcement officers. If the fight to modify the Volstead Act so that beer and light wines may be sold succeeds the return of the saloon in some forms is inevitable. The person who in the face of these facts still insists that the fight is over, is the victim of civic moral sleeping sickness. Friends of prohibition, advocates of law and order, are squarely challenged to fight or quit. Only the first phase of the fight is won. The second will be harder. How long it will last will depend upon the earnestness and thoroughness of enforcement.

We recommend some form of organization in every community to assist the officers in the enforcement of law. Enemies of law and order have always linked together for self protection. But friends of order have thought and felt individually and therefore, without effect. Prosecuting attorneys, judges, and magistrates need to feel the backing of organized bodies of citizens, pledged to support them in the faithful execution of the law.

Knowing how vital is moral sentiment in all law enforcement effort, we recommend that we give ourselves heartily to the task of creating such sentiment. Let our pastors preach on law enforcement. Enlist the help of the organized classes in our Sunday schools by appointing law enforcement committees in each adult class, discourage our people in the practice of becoming bondsmen for these indicted for violating the prohibition law and that our people be asked to refrain from signing pardons for those under sentence.

Believing that a road sentence is a more effective method of checking the evil than sentence to imprisonment or imposition of fines we commend the action of those judges of the Superior Court who have imposed road sentences and express the hope that this course may be adopted by all our judges.

We recommend that this body go on record as favoring legislation that will harmonize our state laws with the Volstead Act and legislation that will give power, authority and funds to the attorney general to enforce our prohibition law.

We endorse the enclosed program of the Committee of 100 citizens on Prison Legislation of the North Carolina Conference for Social Service looking toward more adequate provision for the mental and physical examination of prisoners; for the segregation of various classes of prisoners; for instructional and reformatory measures for larger facilities for training offenders between the ages of 17 and 21; for the enforcement of living conditions in prison camps and for detention houses and prison farm for women offenders.

We rejoice in the action of the government forbidding the carrying of intoxicating liquors on ships flying the flag of the United States and opposing the carrying of liquor on foreign ships within prescribed distance from the shores of the United States.

Since the Anti-Saloon League has been a mighty agency in promoting the cause of prohibition, we recommend that we pledge it our loyal support and hearty co-operation.

We recommend the election of Rev. W. L. Hutchins and Dr. L. C. Smith as trustees of the Anti-Saloon League.

W. M. BORING, Chairman.

BERTHA P. NEWELL, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD REPORT

Our last General Conference stated what is the aim of all Sunday school activity, namely: To "lead each pupil to a knowledge of God's will and an acceptance of Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour and Lord; and, to develop a Christian character that is expressed through worship, right living, and efficient service."

To accomplish this high aim the General Conference has outlined and clearly stated a "Program of Work" for each Sunday School. This program of work is the detailed statement of the machinery necessary to secure the desired goal. In reality three programs of work have been distinctly stated by the General Conference: one for the one-room school; another for the school with several class rooms and departments; and a third for the school that has completely departmentalized organization. Every pastor and superintendent should immediately acquaint himself with these fresh and clear statements of the program of work for the next quadrennium. These statements can be secured from the Conference office in Lexington, N. C.

The members of the Board earnestly request that more of our leaders, pastors, superintendents and teachers, take courses for credit in our standard training schools in the various districts and also at the training school at Lake Junaluska and at the summer school at Trinity College. If the wife in the home does not actually do the cooking herself, the efficiency of the culinary department will be vastly improved if she also knows the things about cooking that her colored cook has to know. In like manner, the pastor who knows the things that successful superintendents and teachers have to know will have a better school than the pastor who does not know these things, whether he actually does any teaching or not. At our next Annual Conference, on the anniversary evening, public recognition will be given to the pastors who have, during the year, earned credits in our training schools for leadership.

Brethren, use your Conference office at Lexington. Write to the Conference Superintendent of Sunday School Work, O. V. Woosley, about your problems and needs. If you are thinking of building or of remodeling your church or Sunday school, invite Mr. Woosley to come and examine your plans with you. Get the most useful ideas and plans about Sunday School architecture, plans that have been approved by the expert leaders of our denomination. When you need inspiration and counsel about equipment and plans for work with the children under thirteen years of age, write to Miss Virginia Jenkins, the new leader in the elementary department at Lexington. She is gifted, consecrated, efficient, and willing. She will be glad to help you.

Sunday School Day programs will be furnished next year at the expense of this Board to all schools that observe the day. It is hoped that the pastor and superintendent will take special pride in giving community advertisement to their school on Sunday School Day. If the offerings made on that day are generous throughout the Conference, more standard training schools can be held within the different districts. Please send the offering to H. A. Dunham, Treasurer, Asheville, N. C.

Our organized classes are requested to give consideration to the Christian Citizenship program that has been outlined by the Y. M. C. A. of our country. This program will appeal especially to boys and girls and to Boy Scout troops within our Sunday schools. Further information can be secured from Association Press, 347 Madison Ave., New York.

The Board requests the members of the Conference Program Committee for our next Annual Conference to permit the Sunday School Anniversary evening to take place on Wednesday, the opening day.

W. A. LAMBETH, Chairman,
GEO. L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Emerson was a wise man and his appraisal of men was with fine discrimination. It is therefore of more than passing interest and importance to note his declaration that while Duty whispers to men her voice is heard most often by the regal young heart who answers unhesitatingly, "I can."

Our church seeing this to be true, organized some thirty years ago the Epworth League in order that the young people of our church connection might be brought to a point of faith and consecration from which they would the more certainly hear and heed the imperious voice of Duty.

History has abundantly justified this step of the fathers for no institution ever set up by the church has accomplished so much with so little.

Beginning with a handful it has grown to a great company which was increased last year by more than 50,000 and contributed during the last quadrennium a total of more than $780,000.

In our conference the work has moved forward for the past few years with strides so rapid as to well-nigh embarrass us, though we are still far short of the goal—"A Chapter in every Church." The records in our hands show a total of 224 chapters, an increase of 92 chapters over the highest number ever reported in our history. There are 10,644 members and raised for all purposes $11,105.

This almost phenomenal growth has been due to the very efficient work done by our Field Secretary, Miss Grace Bradley, ably assisted by the Intermediate Superintendent, the Life Service Superintendent, the District Secretaries, the Conference officers and the pastors and presiding elders. Without the earnest co-operation of these no success would have been possible.

Junaluska continues to attract increasing crowds of young people and we especially urge the Epworthians of our Conference to attend the next summer assembly at that place.

We would insist upon the organization of City League Unions wherever three or more chapters can come together.

District Institutes are of prime importance to our work and we urge all district secretaries to take the lead in planning for such institutes, in every district of the Conference. Glad to report four city efficiency institutes at which more than 100 Christian culture diplomas were awarded.

The Epworth Era has wrought its way to distinction among the best magazines of the day and has climbed to a circulation of more than 30,000.

We again insist that our Epworth Leaguers and young people generally read this bright wholesome periodical.

The annual Epworth League Conference held at North Wilkesboro in June was more largely attended and characterized by a deeper interest and a higher enthusiasm than any like gathering ever held in our Conference. We desire to urge our pastors and young people throughout the Conference to attend the next Conference to be held in Charlotte.

A well-known writer has declared, "The latest Gospel in this world is to know the work and do it". As leaders in kingdom building let us in every way possible preach this latest Gospel to the young life of our church for it is nothing short of glorious to see the beauty of youth living for God.

J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Among the wonders of the world the greatest is this: how the world saves men.

The problem of the church is how to get this liberating, life-giving word into the hearts of men. From the lips of the holy Prophet it flows as a river of life. From the inspired printed page it breathes the breath of life.

The problem of the Board of Christian Literature is how to get the printed word into the hands of our people. That our Church is creating good literature we are sure and thankful. Our literature is good, but it does not go far enough in its circulation.

In the performance of the task of getting our books and papers into the hands of our young people, our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues can render noble service. Let them have their own libraries and form study-classes teaching our Church history, policy and doctrine. But let us remember that in the circulation of our literature, as in other matters, the pastor is the key man, and great is his responsibility. A pastor can hardly render a greater service to a boy than to get a good book in his hands.

We are pleased to find the business of the Advocate in fine shape as seen in the following:

The good news that the Advocate is now able to take care of itself without the $5,000.00 as appropriated last year by our two conferences is pleasing to us.

The Board of Publication desire with us earnestly to increase the circulation of the Advocate from its present list of 25,000 subscribers to 30,000. To nerve us for the task of doing this they suggest a contest between the Presiding Elders' Districts and between the two conferences. The Advocate will give a ten days' free trip to Lake Junaluska to the two Districts in each Conference obtaining the largest percentage of its membership as new subscribers and renewals to the Church Organ. The Advocate will also give a ten days' free trip to the Conference obtaining the largest percentage of its membership as new subscribers and renewals to the Church paper. The Presiding Elder, District Lay Leader, and one other person to be selected by the Presiding Elder, shall decide who wins the prize in the District, and the Presiding

Elders of the winning Conference shall decide who is to have the free trip from the winning Conference.

This campaign will begin the first of February and close April 30th.

The Conference is requested to confirm the nomination of Dr. W. P. Few and Rev. S. B. Turrentine as members of the Methodist Board of Publication to succeed themselves.

The Board asks Bishop Denny to appoint Rev. A. W. Plyler, as editor of the Advocate for the coming year.

We have no report from our Publishing House at Nashville and from our General Organ; but recommend heartily our General Organ, The Quarterly Review and all publications coming out from our Epworth League and Sunday School Boards, and from the various departments of our Church. In the Centenary Movement we see what our Church can do when it gets an inspiring truth into the hearts of our people and the literature into their hands that floods their mental horizon with the light and inspiration of a divine vision.

It is a pleasant reflection to our retiring Board of Christian Literature to recall the fact that during the closing quadrennium the North Carolina Christian Advocate subscription list has grown from less than 15,000 to over 25,000 subscribers. We are pleased with this great achievement. In other lines our religious literature has grown and increased in its service to our great Church.

It is a grief to us that Bro. J. A. Odell and Bro. D. B. Coletrane cannot be with us in this Conference. Most hearty and stalwart friends of our church and of our literature. We pray the blessings of heaven upon them in age and feebleness.

O. P. ADER, Chairman,

C. H. TROWBRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY

Advance seems to be the key word of the American Bible Society, since the circulation of the Scriptures have increased hundreds of thousands during the year.

The demand for and the circulation of the Sunday School Bibles have increased 50 per cent.

The largest gifts from the churches, the largest gifts from individuals, and the largest gifts on the Annuity basis in the Society's history have been received during the year. This is cause for rejoicing.

A consummation of long years of service is the translation and revision this year of the Spanish New Testament and is being distributed to all the Spanish speaking people in Mexico and Europe.

The issues for the year are: tentatively 375,277 Bibles, 749,396 Testaments; 3,730,841 portions, totaling 4,855,464 volumes.

Many more distributors in the various fields have been employed than heretofore.

The Bible has a far greater welcome in the Roman Catholic countries of Europe than it had before the great World War.

For this cause our Conference raised last year $1,759.50. There has been raised this year the sum of $1,772.00.

C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

Your Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church, has been assigned a difficult task. We have given attention to everything that you would wish us to consider. We are glad that during the year there have been fine revivals and large additions to the churches. We are grateful that there has never in the history of our conference, been such marvelous growth in our Sunday School work. We have pride in the fine advancement in financial undertakings and recognize that these and other accomplishments of our church are all indications of growth in spirituality. We have not failed to give proper credit to the church for all of its fine accomplishments, nor have we failed to look ahead and see the prophecy of still greater things. We have been forced to give attention to some conditions that are not indicative of that sound, spiritual health conducive to growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. There is an alarmingly small number of family altars among our people. The church life can be no better than the family life. The community life can be no better than the church life, therefore, we are forced to a consideration of the home. Our homes will never be better homes and our church will never be more spiritual until the family altar is restored in all our homes.

Another evidence of lack of an abiding spiritual life, pleasing to God and satisfactory to the church and the individual member, is that while we have good revivals and report large accessions to the church, before the next revival season arrives the visible effects of the former revival are gone and we are compelled to spend very much of our effort in the work of reclaiming those who have lost out since their conversion.

Many of our pastors are sounding a note of alarm on account of that lack of spiritual life, which always induces those who are spiritually alive to stay for the preaching services, where, and where only, they can be spiritually fed upon the sincere milk of the Word. We very much wish our pastors and superintendents of Sunday Schools, in co-operation with the parents, to have children to attend the regular church service. We feel that there is grave danger to the church if this is not done.

One of the largest menaces to the spiritual life of our people is the materialistic tendencies of the day, which are so powerfully turning the hearts of people away from the fundamentals of God's word and causing them to make dangerous compromises in worldly amusements of questionable character, thus destroying the spiritual life of many of the people.

D. C. BALLARD, President,
ALBERT SHERRILL, Secretary.

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The Committee on the Superannuate Endowment Fund herewith reports that they received, at the death of Rev. J. P. Rodgers, Conference Agent of the Superannuate Endowment Fund, total pledges made to the agent and to the Committee aggregating, in round numbers, $135,000.

Of said amount, subscriptions of $92,600 were in the form of pledges to be carried in various building and loan associations. Of said sum of pledges, the Committee has been advised, either by the parties direct or by the building and loan associations, that 563 shares, or $56,300 is being carried and reports to that effect have been received by the Committee during the current year.

The Committee was advised that about 24 shares, or $2400 was not taken out, and that there was no prospect that same would be taken out. The Treasurer's report shows that a number of the original building and loan subscriptions were changed to the cash payment plan, and will be carried in that way, and not through the building and loan. However, according to the original pledges, some 300 shares, or $30,000 of subscriptions have not been accounted for by a report from the subscribers or from any building and loan association. It is possible that some of this stock may have been taken out, and may be in process of maturing, but the Committee has not been so advised. The subscriptions are in various amounts—largely in one share subscriptions, and the parties live over the entire western portion of the state, and have not, so far, acknowledged any communications to them, or forwarded to the Treasurer their certificates of stock, in accordance with their subscription pledge, so the Committee is unable to advise the status of approximately 300 shares of the building and loan pledges.

Since the death of Brother Rodgers, the Chairman of the Committee has written all subscribers from two to three times, asking for reports and urging the compliance with the obligations of the subscriptions to the stock. The responses, in general, have been very favorable, and the Committee is encouraged to feel that a considerable majority of the pledges will be finally paid, and at a time approximately within the period contemplated for the maturity of these obligations. However, the Committee felt it but due to the Conference and to themselves, to let it be known that a large proportion of the building and loan is in this unsatisfactory shape.

The Treasurer's report shows that he holds securities which have come to hand in the aggregate sum of $103,823, which amount is made up as follows:

Cash and securities reduced to cash	$45,461
Notes payable	1,612
Real Estate	450
Building and loan certificates and pledges	56,300

In view of the approaching campaign for the Superannuate Endowment Fund proposed at the last General Conference, the Committee feels that it cannot recommend a campaign for new pledges or subscriptions to this Conference Fund, and feels that without the purpose of obtaining additional subscriptions, it can not recommend the appointment of a regular agent for the purpose of collecting the pledges now outstanding. The Committee feels that the result to be accomplished would hardly justify the expense of an agent for that purpose, the subscribers to the fund being scattered over such an extensive territory, that the collections must be made largely by correspondence. The Committee is willing to continue to make collections of the outstanding pledges for the ensuing year, as it has done for the period since the death of Brother Rodgers.

The Committee reports the death of Mr. J. W. Harris of High Point, and asks that a successor be appointed as a member of this Committee, and recommends the name of F. S. Lambeth for such place.

The Committee begs to acknowledge herewith, its great debt and obligation to the faithful and heroic service of Brother J. P. Rodgers, and bespeaks for him a lasting place in the affections and memory of the Western North Carolina Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

We are gratified to note the wise forethought of our people in the erection of good church buildings with modern Sunday School facilities, and commend our rural charges for the progress they have made this year.

We wish to rejoice with our people for their interest manifested in repairing and remodeling the parsonages of our Conference and that many new and commodious ones have been built in view to greater accommodation and comfort of those who occupy them.

We suggest that where the erection of new churches are contemplated in our rural charges as well as in our towns, that Sunday School facilities should receive special consideration.

We would urge our people to make an effort to build a parsonage in every charge and so far as possible, let them be furnished with modern conveniences.

We are delighted with our town and city churches, patronizing our own fire insurance company and commend them therefor.

Your committee is shocked to note that 60 per cent. of church property is absolutely without insurance—therefore would insist upon the pastors bringing this matter forcefully to the attention of the local boards of trustees in their respective charges.

E. N. CROWDER, Chairman,
D. S. RICHARDSON, Secretary.

METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Your Board of Directors beg leave to report that they have gone into the affairs of the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company covering the period from October 1, 1921 to October 1, 1922, and after a thorough examination found the books of the Secretary and Treasurer in excellent condition.

The insurance in force at the present time is $1,393,485 which represents $200,000 net increase over the previous year. We are glad to report that the Church Officials are awakening to the necessity of protecting church property against loss by fire.

The losses of the company for the past year $151.24. The assets of the company at the present time are $15,436.25 which is a net increase of $2,000 over the previous year.

We recommend the re-election of Dorman Thompson as Director, his term to expire in 1927.

Your Board would urge the members of the Conference and each Board of Trustees holding property for the church within the bounds of the Conference to see that such property is adequately protected in our Company.

E. A. COLE, President.

W. E. WEBB, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CHAPEL HILL CHURCH

The Joint Commission for the work at Chapel Hill submits the following report:

A meeting of the Commission was held in March, 1922, at Chapel Hill when committees on plans and property were appointed. The work of planning and building an adequate parsonage was committed to the local church. This building is well planned for entertaining small groups of students. It is modern in all its appointments, and adequate for the usual demands that will be made upon it. The fall reception to the Methodist students will be held in it sometime in November.

The Property Committee has completed arrangements with the University trustees whereby the Seton Barbee property can be purchased for the sum of $14,000, and the Algernon Barbee store property, which has been purchased by the church, can be exchanged for certain fraternity lots at the rear of the Seton Barbee property, thus giving a property holding of 250 feet on Franklin St., and 300 feet deep in the campus. By this property adjustment, the present church building can be remodeled for social purposes and become one unit of the new plant, the new church giving an advantageous site, and sufficient land unoccupied for future development as demands shall necessitate. Your commission instructed the property committee to proceed to secure all necessary legal papers for the transfer of these properties.

Mr. James Gamble Rogers has been chosen architect for the church. He is the architect of the Harkness Quadrangle at Yale, and the consulting architect for Yale University. He has visited Chapel Hill twice and is now working on the second draft of plans. As soon as the plans are accepted, and an estimate of the cost of the building ascertained, your commission desires to secure the balance of the necessary funds to complete the building program from the Methodists of the state. To this end the Presiding Elders of the two conferences have been asked to name a leader in each district to co-operate with the campaign committee at Chapel Hill.

M. T. PLYLER, President,

R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

HOSPITAL BOARD

In the Episcopal address to the General Conference the bishops said: "It is to our discredit that with more than 2,000,000 members distributed over one of the most prosperous sections of the world, we have but few hospitals worthy of the name in this day of advancement in the healing and surgical arts."

Acting upon this suggestion the General Conference established a General Hospital Board with instruction to study the hospital situation in the church, to provide literature and to devise plans for the promotion of hospital enterprises, and to assist in building and financing hospitals in various communities throughout our connection.

The General Hospital Board has been organized with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., with Bishop Warren A. Candler as chairman.

Acting upon their request and the action of the General Conference, this Conference has appointed a Conference Hospital Board which has been organized and is now ready to co-operate with the General Board and proceed with such other work of this character as this Conference may wish us to do.

We do not at present recommend any definite work, but hope soon to have some definite plans to offer to the Conference.

J. F. KIRK, Chairman,

J. B. IVEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

We are thankful to report for the Children's Home a prosperous year. The churches have been more liberal in their support of our work than ever before, and our income from bequests larger. The Court has established the John Neal will, and we have received one cash dividend from this great legacy. This estate by the terms of the will is to be held as an endowment from which the income "shall be used by them in the support and education of orphan children committed to their care and custody for rearing." Our income from this legacy will probably amount to from $12,000 to $15,000 per year. In connection with the suit to establish the Neal will the Board of Trustees wishes to make public and grateful acknowledgement of the very generous act of Tillett and Guthrie, Charlotte, for valuable legal services rendered for which they refused to accept any pay. A bequest from the late John H. Wood, Rutherfordton, yielded us a little less than ($5,000) five thousand dollars.

At the beginning of the year there were 143 children in the Home. We now have 148. One of these is in a sanatorium in Virginia for treatment for tuberculosis. All the other children seem to be in fairly good health at present.

At last our children are housed in good, permanent buildings; and from henceforth every new building will mean enlarged capacity for taking children. We now have seven brick buildings completed and occupied. We have under construction a modern school house with auditorium. We are planning to build within a year a hospital and at least one new dormitory. Since the hospital will empty the present infirmary, the two new buildings will mean two dormitories and at least fifty more children.

We have added the eleventh grade to our school making it a complete high school. There is needed one teacher for ungraded work, a need as yet unsupplied. We are fortunate in having for our school principal, Mr. Robert Bradshaw, a graduate of Trinity College, a young man of exceptional ability, and a staff of teachers peculiarly well qualified for our work. We dare to say that we have a school equal to the best. When our new school house is completed a good friend has promised to put one thousand dollars worth of books into the library.

For the coming year we are planning for better work in industrial training. As the numbers of our children increase it will be possible to enlarge our work in this line. In the meantime we are trying to find out what is being done and what can be done.

We request the Conference for permission to raise through the churches and Sunday Schools money for a Baby Cottage. Our orphanage was the first in North Carolina to declare its intention to take babies, but we are almost the last to get ready to do it.

Has not the time come for the Methodists of the Western N. C. Conference to definitely decide that we will undertake the care of all our Methodist orphans? Whether we house them at the Children's Home or care for some of them through a system of Mother's Aid is immaterial. But surely it is unbecoming Methodists to adopt any doctrine and practice of election and reprobation, choosing some children for shelter and salvation and others for neglect and loss.

We append herewith as a part of our report the action taken at the last session of the Asheville District Conference as follows:

"The obligation upon the church to care for one orphan is an obligation to care for every orphan possible. We are sure that it is possible for the people of the Western North Carolina Conference to care for every Methodist orphan in our territory and that it is our duty to do it.

"Therefore, we, the Asheville District Conference, assembled, petition the Western North Carolina Conference to adopt a program of enlargement of our Children's Home, to supply facilities and means for caring for every needy child in our midst, as quickly as possible.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Board of Lay Activities reports that it has organized according to the legislation of the General Conference and recommends

1st. That C. H. Ireland be elected Lay Leader of the W. N. C. Conference.

2nd. That the Board of Finance lay an assessment of $1,000.00 for the support of the work of Lay Activities under this board.

3rd. That this Conference endorse the following objectives of our Lay Activities: First. To see that a religious service is held every Sabbath in every Methodist church in the W. N. C. Conference and that the services held by laymen shall emphasize Evangelism, Stewardship, and Tithing. Second. To see that all Mission Charges shall become self supporting as quickly as possible, and that all charges pay the conference assessments in full.

CHAS. H. IRELAND, President,
E. A. COLE, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

All of the District Conference records were examined and the Committee found that they had been carefully kept. The Asheville record was the most neatly kept. The Waynesville and Shelby records deserve special mention.

Since the records form a most important part of church history the Committee urges that all the records of the District Conferences continue to be faithfully kept and that Secretaries use the District Conference record book published by our publishers at Nashville.

J. C. SALES, Chairman,
H. G. ALLEN, Secretary.

REV. JAMES WILLSON

By J. F. Kirk

James Willson was born in Davie County, February 16, 1845. Left an orphan at an early age, he made his home for about ten years, with Wilfred Turner at Turnersburg, in Iredell county. In the second year of the Civil War, he enlisted with the seventeen-year-old boys as a private, and served the Confederate cause to the close of the war. In 1869, he entered Trinity College and was a classmate of Hon. F. M. Simmons and Prof. W. H. Pegram.

In 1871, he joined the North Carolina Conference at Charlotte, and was ordained elder in 1875 by Bishop Keener. On October 20, 1874, he was married to Miss Virginia Turner, daughter of Wilfred Turner of Turnersburg. To them were born six children, four of whom survive.

He had a record of a half century of service in the Methodist ministry. We give below an approximate list of the charges served by him during this time:

Jones Circuit, 1872-3; Magnolia, 1874; Winston, 1875; Mount Airy Circuit, 1876-9; Mount Airy Station, 1880-3; Mount Airy Mission, 1884; Rocky Mount, 1885; Statesville Advocate, 1886-1900; Mooresboro Circuit, 1901; Statesville Circuit, 1902-4; Kernersville, 1905; West Randolph, 1906; Gold Hill, 1907-9; Cherryville, 1910-11; McAdenville, 1912; Woodleaf, 1913.

He was granted the superannuate relation in 1913, since which time he had made his home with his children, having spent the last several years with his daughter, Mrs. Webb Alexander at Winston-Salem.

As a preacher, he was sane and orthodox. His sermons were always carefully prepared. A friend said of him that he had never heard him preach a slovenly sermon. Long practice as a writer, made him careful in his choice of words, even his extemporaneous utterances needed no revision for the printer.

As a pastor, he was diligent; in the social circle charming. Moreover, he was a very conscientious pastor, observing the injunction "never be triflingly employed". He improved the opportunity in his visiting from house to house to present to the members of his charge every important cause of the church. He was successful on several charges in securing the largest number of new subscriptions to his church paper of any member of the conference.

He rendered a various service to the church, but it is in the field of journalism, that he made his most signal contribution. He had a style that showed marked ability in facility of expression. There was, also, running through nearly all that he wrote that whimsical humor and keen wit that made its reading a delight.

He possessed a decided spirit of loyalty. He loved his friends and stood loyally by them. He was also positive in his convictions. In the pioneer days of the fight against the legalized liquor traffic, he was one of the recognized leaders in the state when it required courage to take such a stand.

After an illness of some three months at the home of his daughter in Winston-Salem, he fell on sleep, June 15, 1922. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Statesville, N. C., there to await the summons on the resurrection morn.

REV. WESLEY M. BAGBY

By T. E. Wagg

Rev. Wesley M. Bagby, son of Abner and Lucinda Bagby, was born in Yadkin County, N. C., Nov. 2, 1852. Died suddenly at his home in Montezuma, Avery County, N. C., July 17, 1922.

Brother Bagby did not have the advantages of an early education. He was 18 years old when he learned to read. But possessing a strong mind, and an indomitable will, he set out thus late in life to prepare for his life work. He entered the East Bend High School and finished the High School course in that institution. He was ever after a close student; and while he did not have a classical education, it could not be said that he was not an educated man.

He was converted and joined the M. E. Church when about 19 years old, and licensed to preach by that church about two years after his conversion. He felt a definite Divine call to preach and he did not fight this call but set about with all the resources at his command to prepare himself for the task.

He joined the Blue Ridge Conference, M. E. Church, in 1876, in which he served the following charges in their order: Catawba, Yadkin, Kings Mountain, and Concord Circuits, and Asheville Station.

He was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, in 1883, and served with great acceptability the following charges: Statesville Circuit 1884-1887; Mooresville Circuit 1888-1889; Randolph Circuit 1890-1893; Centenary, Greensboro, 1894-1895; Gastonia, Main Street 1897-1899; Monroe Central 1900-1903; High Point, Washington Street, 1904-1906; Morganton 1907; Hickory 1908; Mount Airy District 1909-1910. In 1910 he was appointed agent for the Superannuate Fund. Here his health began to fail, and he was put on the supernumerary list which relation he had until 1914, when he again became effective, and served the Watauga Circuit 1915-1916. He broke down in health in the middle of the second year on this charge, and had to give up the work. At the following Annual Conference he took a superannuate relation, which he sustained until his death.

Brother Bagby was an able preacher. He had a rare native ability, which together with a deep consecration, strong faith in God, and the truth of his Word, made him a preacher of great force and usefulness. He made the Bible his chief book and could quote it readily; and its great principles were inwrought into his very being.

He was loyal to his brethren in the ministry, and was ever ready to serve them. He laid aside enough during his active life to provide a comfortable home. After his superannuation many a tired preacher passing his way, shared his unstinted hospitality, for ministers of all denominations found a brotherly welcome in his home.

He had many friends among the people whom he served, and the expressions of sorrow at his death were many and sincere.

He was a clean, pure, exemplary man, upright in his daily walk and conversation. He eschewed evil in all its forms. His standard and ideals of life were lofty, and he lived up to them.

There was nothing sensational in his composition. He studied to be useful rather than showy, and to accomplish results rather than to advertise himself. He was reliable and trustworthy, careful to inform himself and ready to go where his sense of duty led.

What a sheaf the grim reaper has gathered, and safely garnered in the home above.

REV. CHARLES M. GENTRY

By W. R. Ware

Charles M. Gentry was born in Yadkin County, N. C., in 1851 and died in Albemarle, N. C., July 4, 1922. On August 22, 1880, he was married to Miss Annie Mariah McCain.

Brother Gentry was licensed to exhort in 1875 by the Quarterly Conference of the Yadkinville Circuit, and by the Quarterly Conference of the same circuit he was licensed to preach January 27, 1877. He was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Salisbury in 1877. At the Conference at Wilson in 1879 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Wightman and in 1881 ordained elder by Bishop George F. Pierce at Durham.

He served the following charges in the North Carolina Conference: 1877, Surry Circuit, as junior preacher; 1878, Pekin Circuit; 1879-'81, Cumberland Circuit; 1882-'85, Cokesbury Circuit; 1884, Smithfield Station; 1885-'86, Newton Circuit; 1887-'89, Catawba Circuit. The Western North Carolina Conference was formed in 1890 and Brother Gentry was returned for his fourth year to Catawba Circuit. He then served the following charges in the newly formed Conference: 1891-'92, Marion Station; 1893 Mocksville Circuit; 1894, Salisbury Circuit; 1895-'96, 97, Gold Hill Circuit; 1898-'99, Salem Circuit; 1900-'01, '02, '03, Albemarle Circuit. At the end of his quadrenium on this circuit, because of failing health, he asked for the supernumerary relation. This relation he sustained until the end of his earthly life.

For the nineteen years which followed he lived in Albemarle, wrought with his own hands, made a comfortable living, accumulated some property in addition to that already owned by his good wife, and preached as frequently as his health would permit. His preaching was always acceptable and efficient.

Truly Brother Gentry and his wife were missionary in spirit. They believed and put into practice "The great commission". She preceded him to her reward four years ago. In addition to contributing through the regular channels of the Church, for years they supported their own foreign missionary. The Near East sufferers, Red Cross workers, and orphans were also beneficiaries of his contributions while he lived; and in his last will and testament, after liberally remembering the relatives of his dear wife and his own in the distribution of his estate, he bequeathed the remainder to the Christian and charitable causes above mentioned. For years to come his works will follow this faithful, consecrated servant of God.

Brother Gentry was an industrious, faithful pastor. He knew the great doctrines of the Bible and preached them as interpreted by his Church. He was careful and painstaking in all he undertook to do, and he would not give up a difficult task until every reasonable effort to accomplish it was exhausted. He knew what he believed, had strong faith in God, and could give a reason for the faith that was in him.

He said to this writer a little while before he passed away, "I would love to live a thousand years just to read God's Word". He kept it close at hand. Although he suffered much in the last months and weeks of his life, he was patient and uncomplaining.

He purchased a full lot in the Albemarle cemetery where his and his wife's remains now sleep. It is enclosed with granite curbing. His reason for buying this large plot was the fact that sometime somebody unable to buy a burying place might use the additional space in the lot he owned. Noble spirit this, and thoughtful.

REV. J. P. RODGERS

By J. F. Kirk

Jesse Pinkney Rodgers, son of Solomon C. and Margaret Barr Rodgers, was born in Rowan County, February 19, 1866, died in Salisbury, N. C., Jan. 31, 1922. He was educated in the public schools of his county, Mooresville High School, the principal of which was Dr. T. N. Ivey, now editor of the Christian Advocate, and at Trinity College, from which he was a graduate in 1892.

On July 6, 1893, he was married to Lottie L. Burrage in Forest Hill Methodist Church, Concord. There are six children, five of whom survive.

He was converted in 1885 and joined the Methodist Church at Mooresville, while in High School, under the pastorate of Rev. P. F. W. Stamey.

Following his graduation from college, he was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1892 at Winston-Salem and appointed principal of Belwood High School in Cleveland county and remained head of this institution for four years. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Wilson on December 2, 1894, and on November 22, 1896, he was ordained elder by Bishop Galloway.

He served the conference continually for 30 years. We give the record of his service as follows:

Belwood High School, 1893-6; Mt. Airy Circuit, 1897-8; Pilot Mountain, 1899; Wilkesboro Circuit, 1900-1901; Asheboro Station, 1902-'3-'4; Mocksville Station, 1905-6; Henrietta-Caroleen, 1907; Haywood Street, Asheville, 1908; Agent of the Children's Home, 1909-11; Albemarle Station, 1912-13; Canton Station, 1914-15; Waynesville District, 1916-17; Agent Superannuate Fund, 1918-22.

This mere recital of the life appointments of Brother Rodgers fails to bring out the importance of the varied forms of service rendered to the Church by this faithful man of God. For 30 years has was instant in season and out of season. In the establishment of the Children's Home, he rendered very signal service to that institution and to the church in raising more than $60,000 for buildings and equipment. He secured this amount, usually in small sums, and in order to raise it, he visited practically every charge in the conference, and spoke in the larger number of the churches. The vital necessity of the Home was thus carried to every nook and corner of our conference, and a basis laid for the permanent place the institution now holds in the hearts of all our people.

In the work undertaken in behalf of the superannuates of our conference, their widows and orphans, he again pioneered the way. It is yet too early to estimate the results of his labors in this field. In the four years of active service that he gave to this cause, he secured pledges, amounting to $180,000, as a perpetual endowment to these old heroes of the Methodist ministry. It is the more remarkable that he should have been able to accomplish this, himself in everything, except will and devotion, a superannuated man. Though travelling thousands of miles, interviewing hundreds of men every year, preaching as he was physically able to stand in a pulpit, there was not a day when he was not in pain, and at times, he suffered intensely. Yet he went on without a whimper, for the most part positively radiating hope and cheer. The remarkable thing about this hopeful attitude is that he knew that sentence of death had been passed upon him. His physicians from the first held out no possible ray of hope, but for five years he faced death with a radiant faith. It has been said of him scores of times by admiring friends that he was "a walking miracle of the grace of God."

It is difficult to analyze, or properly estimate a man like J. P. Rodgers. He was one of the most conscientious of men. For more than thirty years, he has been a careful tither. On his first charge, he received a salary of only $400.00, but forty dollars of this amount was definitely set aside to the Lord's work. He kept careful account of every cent of indirect income, and one-tenth of the value of this income was set aside to benevolent causes. His fidelity to a trust was beyond the ordinary. He toiled because he thought he was working for a holy cause.

He had a passion for souls. His preaching had the evangelistic note. In the middle years of his ministry, he was very successful in revival work, and was much in demand to preach in revivals.

TRIBUTE TO HEROINES OF THE PARSONAGE

This tribute to heroines of the parsonage was read by W. E. Poovey at our Memorial Service:

"Wives of itinerant preachers belong to a group of moral heroines whose merited praise has largely, and too long, been left unsung.

Theirs are the most sequestered ways of quiet service, and yet those quiet consecrated lives within the cloistered walls of humble parsonages are often the explanation of success, the source of inspiration, and the secret of power in the public ministry of Methodist preachers.

Their self-sacrificing assumption of a large portion of the petty details, along with the heavier responsibilities of the parsonage, release our energies for the high tasks of our holy religion; their love and sympathy lighten the toil of our hands; and their prayers inspire our hearts for spiritual enterprise.

Our work is to fan the holy flame on the Church altars; theirs is to keep the home fires burning.

We, serving in public ways, are enheartened by the words of praise from an appreciative people; while they, walking the more secluded pathways of private ministry, are often rewarded solely by the silent plaudit of a commending conscience.

We come to the Annual Conference for a season of high fellowship, and receive fresh inspiration along with our assignment to fields of service; they, with anxious hearts but unafraid, remain at home ready to receive, and resolved to obey, marching orders.

I repeat again, the wives of itinerant ministers are the moral heroines of our militant order. Hence this meed of praise is not out of place at a Memorial Service of an Annual Conference to these heroines of Methodism, who have passed on to their eternal reward.
